LET'S MAKE IT UNANIMOUS

Reports from all over the country indicate an overwhelming victory for Wilson and Marshall. Nothing less than a sort of political miracle could bring about the defeat of the democratic candidates. It has been a fatal mistake of many leaders to feel too confident and to underestimate the opponent's strength. No one interested in the election of Wilson and Marshall can afford to let up or slow down in the work. Every man who can be in his home precinct and is physically able to go to the polls on November 5, ought to register his vote.

In New Mexico, it appears to be reasonably certain that Hon. H. B. Fergusson will be re-elected. However, it is not so nearly certain that we can afford to miss a single vote. New Mexico still has some counties which can be depended upon to return big majorities for the candidate favored by the powers. Mr. Fergusson's name will be conspicuous by its absence from the ballots in those counties.

Mr. Fergusson made three good speeches to large crowds at Tularosa, La Luz and Alamogordo. He said positively and emphatically that he did not favor free wool, yet those of the opposition are saying that a vote for Fergusson is a vote for free wool. This misstatement may influence some votes.

Moreover, Mr. Jaffa is personally very popular, and deservedly so. He has lived many years in the Pecos valley and will receive a part of the democratic vote. Otero county needs every vote that it can muster for Fergusson. Go to the polls and vote for him, and see also that your neighbors vote.

TO BUILD A COLLEGE

On or about Oct. 22, several men who are prominent and successful in founding and maintaining colleges will be in Alamogordo for the purpose of looking over the field with a view of building a normal college here. A mass meeting will be held at the court house and the plans submitted to the citizens of this community.

As Ed. Oliver outlines the plans, financial aid or a bonus will not be asked of Alamogordo. The promoters are fully able to finance the deal. All that they desire is the assurance that the citizens here really want the college located in Alamogordo and are ready to co-operate in such a hearty and cordial way as will insure the success of the institution.

Such an institution would be of inestimable benefit to Alamogordo. It is to be hoped that the citizens will attend the meeting en masse and do with might and main all the little that is asked of them.

THE OTHER FELLOW SAYS

Senator Bankhead was discussing a misunderstanding of Canadian reciprocity.

"These men were at sea," he said. "They were as much at sea as Jags."

"Jags, you know, after an evening at the club, elected to sleep in the tulip bed in his front yard. He slept well, and in the morning, when he awoke, he saw his wife regarding him bitterly from the open casement of her bedroom."

"Jags, confused and chilly in the fresh morning air, huddled up among the cold tulips and yelled:

"Shut that window, woman! Do you want me to catch my death?"—Exchange.

"My husband has deserted me and I want a warrant," announced the large lady.

"What reason did he have for deserting you?" asked the prosecutor.

"I don't want any lip from you; I want a warrant. I don't know what reason he had."

"I think I understand his reason," said the official feebly, as he proceeded to draw up a warrant.—Pittsburg Post.

"Oh, Willie, Willie," cried a teacher to a hopelessly dull pupil, "whatever do you think your head is for?"

Willie, who evidently thought this another of the troublesome questions that teachers are always asking, pondered it deeply. "Please, miss," he replied at length, "to keep my collar on!" Youth's Companion.

This is the season of the year when the man who wants to get his name into the newspapers can have his wish gratified by announcing that after supporting the Republican ticket for forty years he will vote for Woodrow Wilson in November. Nearly everybody's doing it.—Springer Stockman.

"I wish to complain," said the bride haughtily, "about that flour you sold me. It was tough."

"Tough, ma'am?" asked the grocer.

"Yes, tough. I made a pie with it, and my husband could hardly eat it."—Everybody's.

"Suppose coal is $6 a ton and you gave your dealer $50, how many tons would he send you?"

"Three."

"Oh, that's wrong."

"I know it's wrong, but that's what he done."—Life.

After election, the Armageddon battlefield will probably be auctioned off to the highest bidder, if it has not already been mortgaged to Perkins.—Socorro Chieftain.

"I met your father last evening and spoke to him about our being married." "Did he strike you favorably?" "Well, not exactly favorably, but rather accurately."—Judge.
